brownbag seminar series

The UCI School of Education’s Brownbag Seminar Series is a chance for students and faculty to hear about new education research from experts from across the country. Five times a term, we host a scholar for a lunch-time talk and individual meetings with students and faculty. Everyone is welcome to attend the seminars!

fall 2017

october 2
Cynthia Coburn || Northwestern

october 16
Eric Taylor || Harvard

october 30
Daniel Karpowitz || Bard

November 13
Fred Oswald || Rice

November 27
Hans Fricke || Stanford

winter 2018

February 5
Angela Calabrese Barton || MSU

February 26
Stephen Aguilar || USC

March 5
Tom Loveless || Brookings

spring 2018

April 2
Seth Gershenson || Vanderbilt

April 16
Kimberly Noble || Columbia

April 30
David Stovall || University of Illinois at Chicago

May 14
Lester Lusher || University of Hawaii at Manoa

June 4
Rucker Johnson || UC Berkeley